The new masonic lodge rooms were used for the first time last week, Chesapeake Lodge celebrated the event with a big banquet on last Friday night, at which, besides the members, there were a number of invited guests present.

At a regular meeting of the Onancock Cornet Band, Tuesday evening, January 12th, the following officers were elected: Frank A. Merrill, president; Jno. W. Duncan, leader; Geo. W. Burke, Jr., assistant; Jno. T. Watson, treasurer; Jno. W. Duncan, secretary.

Hoffman's Wharf.

The steamer Chesapeake, commanded by Capt. Seth Foster, of the oyster police force, arrived here on Friday, 9th inst., having in tow, the pungy, J. W. Brooks, captured for dredging in Virginia waters. The pungy is owned by Capt. Caleb Evans, of Crisfield, has a carrying capacity of about 1500 bushel of oysters and is valued at about $1800. Several other boats engaged in dredging made their escape. The oyster-men of Crisfield and Smith's Island, it is said, are not to be deterred however, by the capture of one boat and pursuit of others, but will, according to advices received here, arm themselves with Winchester rifles and take all the oysters they want, in upper part of Tangier Sound in defiance of the police. It is possibly a mere threat, but Capt. Corbin, says, he will be prepared to give them a warm reception, if they attempt by force to carry their threats into execution. The crew of the captured pungy left for Baltimore by steamer, last Monday.

S. K. Martin & Co., have bought schooner Geo. Lemmons and sent her South for a load of lumber, laths &c. On her return they will be prepared to furnish all kinds of lumber promptly at very low figures.

Masonic Banquet at Onancock.

One of the most enjoyable occasions of this merry season was the Masonic banquet held in the Town Hall, of Onancock, on Friday night, January 9th. Happiness beamed on every countenance and twinkled in every eye. From the hour of 7 to the "wee sma' hours" all went as merry as a marriage bell. Mr. Frank M. Boggs, of Onancock, and his accomplished and attractive sister, Miss Sally, (her modesty forbids the praise justly due her), were in charge of the preparation of the elegant and superb supper, and Prof. E. P. Brent, the Master of the Lodge, was the author of the programme for the evening. The names of the persons already mentioned are sufficient to guarantee success. As attractive as the menu was, consisting of almost every thing that is good to eat, the company was more attracted. The Masons were requested to take with them their better halves. But as some did not have that half they were permitted to take a sister, or "if she's not here to take your part, then choose the next one to your heart." They did choose. And oh, such a fine looking company of ladies! Mr. Editor, you ought to have been there. You would have said that the younger Masons were displaying wonderfully fine taste as well as the older ones.

After the bountiful repast the Master took charge of the assembly, and propounding certain toasts or sentiments, called upon some brother by name to respond in a short extempore address.

The first propounded was "Masonry as a Moral Force," and Rev. W. J. Twilley was requested to respond. He did so, showing that the continuity, unity and the recognition of God were some of the evidences of the moral force of Masonry.

The next toast, "Our Sister Lodges" was responded to by Mr. Henry Uphur, the Master of Eastville Lodge. His remarks were very appropriate, dwelling especially on the fact that a Mason here is a Mason world-wide.

The next, "The Four Cardinal Virtues of Masonry," was responded to by a few pleasant and witty remarks from Dr. Smith, Past Master of the Eastville Lodge.

The next, "The Tenets of Masonry, Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth," was appropriately responded to by Rev. A. C. Berryman, pastor of the M. E. Church, South, of Onancock.

The next, "The Lodge Covering, or the Starry Decked Heavens," was responded to by our venerable brother, John W. H. Parker, of Onancock. The fire of youth seemed to burn again in the "old man eloquent," and poetry in rhythmic rhyme fell in rounded numbers from his metric lips.

The next, "Our First Three Grand Masters," was responded to by Rev. Wm. Chinn, of the Presbyterian Church. Brother Chinn is not a Mark Twain, but would have been, if his parents had been named Twain and they had baptized him Mark. But jokes aside, there is a vein of humor in him as rich as that of Mark. If cracking a smile had cracked the countenance, everybody there would have had shivered faces when he was through.

The last propounded, "Masonry, its Relation to Woman," was responded to by Hon. J. W. G. Blackstone. Mr. Blackstone is always a good talker. He was felicitous on this occasion. The Master read some letters from brethren that could not be there. Thus ended a richly enjoyed entertainment, and one that will ever be kindly remembered by all participants.

Meeting of County Alliance.

An adjourned meeting of the County Alliance, 75, will be held at Parkesley station, on Saturday, January 17th, 1891, at 10 a. m., sharp, and it is earnestly, yet respectfully requested that a full delegation will be present, as business of great importance will be brought before the Alliance, for transaction. All the delegates that were elected will be entitled to seats, whose dues are paid. Do not omit to send in your dues to the Secretary at once to his post office, at Only, and do not wait for the meeting, as he is waiting for the reports of the Sub-Alliance to make his report to the State Secretary. A full attendance is solicited. By order of the president.

Geo. W. LeCato, M. D.

Jno. T. Hutchinson, President.

Secretary Co. Alliance 75.

Roadway on Hog Island.

The House Committee on commerce, Tuesday, ordered a favorable report on the bill recently introduced by Representative Browne, of Virginia, authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to acquire by purchase or otherwise right-of-way over such property on Hog Island, Virginia, as may be necessary to establish a roadway for the transportation of light-house and life-saving supplies to Hog Island, with an amendment directing also the acquirement of a site for a wharf.

At the last session of Congress the sum of $5,000 was appropriated for the purchase of a site and the construction of this road, but it was held by the Treasury authorities that the act was deficient, or rather, that the authority was not sufficient, and no steps were taken. A communication from Secretary Windom called attention to the fact that the act of last session was not sufficiently explicit, and also recommended the amendment for provision for a wharf.—Richmond Times.

Banquet at Only.

The friends and members of Onley M. E. Church, South, will have a banquet in the large hall over Stevenson's workshop, Onley station, on next Thursday evening, January 22d, for the purpose of raising funds to buy Sunday school supplies for the new church. Prof. Frank P. Brent will deliver the address of welcome and other gentlemen will deliver short addresses appropriate to the occasion. The music will be furnished by the Onancock Brass band. Supper will be served in elegant style at the price of 50 cents. Nothing in fact will be left undone to make the entertainment a delightful one in all respects. Go and take your wives and sweethearts with you and while you will be benefitted tenfold by the outlay you will make, help along the worthy cause.

Church Dedication. The Sykes' Island Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will be dedicated Sunday, January 18th 1891, at 11 o'clock, a. m., by Rev. George H. Ray, a former Presiding Elder of the Eastern Shore District. Bro. Ray will also address the Sykes' Island Sunday school, at 3 o'clock, p. m., of the same day, and preach again 7.30, p. m. Former pastors of the Atlantic charge are cordially invited to be present, and participate in the dedication exercises. The public are also respectfully invited to attend, and we can certainly break them a good sermon from the Ray and a large share of the hospitality of our good people of the Island, whose generosity and hospitality are still in keeping with their old time reputation.

Presiding Elders' Appointments.

Following are appointments for Eastern Shore District, first round: Eastville, Salem, Jan. 17, 18. Cape Charles, Jan. 18, at night. Onancock, Andrews Chapel, Feb. 21, 22. J. D. HANK, P. E.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

What is home without a barrel of Royal? Try it and you will find that a long felt want, necessary to the happiness of the home circle, has been met.

The great popularity of Ayer's Pills as a cathartic is due no less to their purity and efficacy than to their coating of sugar and freedom from any injurious effects. Children take them readily. See Ayer's Almanac for this year, just out.

NOTICE—All persons indebted to the firm of F. T. Stockley & Co. will please take notice that I desire to settle up the outstanding accounts of the firm either by cash or note by February 1st. All persons interested are respectfully but earnestly requested to come forward and settle at once. F. T. Stockley.

Royal, sold by Jas. Myer & Co., Baltimore, changes competition. It is the best flour on the market, is the verdict generally, wherever used.

STRAYED—From my premises Friday, December 26th, a calf unmarked, brand sides and legs, pied from shoulders to end of tail, one year old in June. Information thankfully received by the undersigned. Edward J. West, Modestown, Va.

A Remarkable case—Mr. Walter Wheeler, of the Washington Mills, Lawrence, Mass., for two years afflicted with varicose veins, accompanied by a troublesome eruption, was completely cured after taking only eight bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

"Hiawatha" is the housekeeper's delight.
